- February is Discover Languages Month. In honor of this, the foreign language department will be selling taquitos and croissants after school on Mondays and Fridays.
- Destined for Success and the MAC Scholars will be sharing "A Black History Minute" during Live Stream morning announcements, every day during the month of February.
- The Teacher Academy of Maryland is selling Calvert High PopSockets in the Atrium. They are $10 a piece! Go buy one!
- "Do you love to sing or play an instrument and work together as a team? Need a fine art credit? See Mr. Bedel, Dr. Blockland or Ms. Combs to register for the perfect music class for you!
- There will be a MAC Scholars meeting on Monday, 2/26 during B Lunch in Room 339. Delegate Jackson will be our guest speaker. Please be on time.
- The Southern MD Ques organization is sponsoring a talent show that is open to all high school students. There will be cash prizes for the top three finishers. The show will be held on March 10 at the CSM fine arts center in LaPlata. For more information, check out the fliers around the building or go to SOUTHERNMDQUES.ORG
- Next Calvert High Junior Optimist Meeting is Thursday, 2/22/18 during A lunch in Room 339. Planning for our Easter Egg Hunt and Elections will occur!!! Don't miss it!!!
- In celebration of World Languages Month, lets look at how to say Hello in many other languages!
- Here is a MYTH about AP Exams: "I don't think I will score high enough on the AP Exam to get college credit." Here is the TRUTH - the REALITY: You don't need to score a "5." Many colleges grant college credit - and placement as well - based on a "3" or better on an AP EXAM. Have you signed up for your AP EXAMS? Don't delay - Sign up in February to save $9.00 per exam.
